Minnesota Safe Lease Termination and Deposit Rights

Survivor Housing Protections Under Minn. Stat. 504B.206

Phumulani: Minnesota African Women Against Violence - 501c3 Certified Community Resource

1. Statutory Rights of Domestic Abuse Survivors

Minnesota Statute 504B.206 allows tenants who are victims of domestic abuse, criminal sexual conduct, or stalking to terminate their residential lease early without penalty.

2. Required Documentation

To invoke Section 504B.206, the tenant must provide written advance notice to the landlord along with qualifying documentation: a copy of an Order for Protection, a Harassment Restraining Order, or a qualified statement signed by a licensed domestic violence advocate.

3. Security Deposit and Liability Rules

The tenant is released from future rent obligations starting at the end of the month following proper notice. The landlord cannot withhold the security deposit solely due to lease termination.

4. Phumulani Housing Bridge Support

Phumulani provides emergency lease termination advocacy, landlord mediation, and rapid bridge funds to secure safe replacement apartments for immigrant families.
